

Governor issues state government performance report

(September 7) Governor Daniels issued the Indiana State Government Performance Report for January to June 2006.

Read the news release

Governor's Update

Volume 1, Issue 9
August 28-September 10, 2006

Read the performance report. Read the specific state agency performance metrics.

2005 Indiana school construction spending down

(September 1) School construction spending still exceeds the national average but decreased in 2005 following new guidance issued last year by Governor Daniels.

Read the news release

The complete 2005 Indiana School Construction Annual Report may be found here.

The governor discussed the report during a media availability. Audio from the news conference may be found here.

Governor Daniels announces next phase of state's biofuels policy

(August 29) "Now that we've come from behind to leadership in first generation biofuels, we want to be second to none in the next generation," said Daniels during opening remarks to participants at the Richard G. Lugar-Purdue University Summit on Energy Security.

Read the news release

(August 30) While traveling around the state, Governor Daniels stopped at an area high school and university to talk with students. Bottom left: Governor Daniels talks with students at Angola High School. The governor spoke to the junior and senior classes about his experiences in public service. Bottom right: Governor Daniels has lunch with student leaders at Huntington University. Following lunch, the governor held a question and answer session with students and faculty.

